

Press Release

INCOSE UK 2019 Council Appointments

INCOSE UK announced in both the 76th edition of ePreview and at the INCOSE UK Annual General Meeting (AGM) held on Wednesday 20th November 2019, that the positions of Technical Director and Finance Directors were unopposed in the most recent INCOSE UK election. Therefore, Jon Holt (Technical Director) and Phil Savvides (Finance Director) will remain in their posts.

The AGM was an opportunity for Kirsty Akroyd-Wallis (INCOSE UK President) to congratulate Jon Holt and Phil Savvides on their re-election as the Technical Director and Finance Director respectively.

Phil Savvides commented “I feel like I still have a vital role to play to ensure INCOSE UK continues to be a sustainable, credible and professional institution with the goal of improving the world through Systems Engineering at its heart”.

While Jon Holt said “I am looking forward to continuing to raise INCOSE UK to be more prominent in both the global INCOSE network and the wider Systems Engineering community”.

The AGM also offered the opportunity to thank Ian Presland (Professional Development Director), for his work and contributions to INCOSE UK. It was announced during ASEC 2019 that Ian would be standing down from his role. An election for a new Professional Development Director will take place in the new year.

INCOSE UK Ltd

INCOSE UK Ltd is the UK Chapter of the International Council on Systems Engineering (INCOSE), with over 1,000 individual and over 30 corporate members, exists primarily to serve UK-specific needs and is a key chapter within INCOSE. It has strong links with other UK institutions and plays a prominent role in both the domestic and the international scenes. It holds one conference and one training day each year, has active regional, working and special interest groups and publishes a variety of books, guides and other products tailored for UK members. Despite its focus on UK-specific needs, the UK Chapter attracts members from territories around the globe. The 'flavour' of Systems Engineering most prevalent in the UK has developed into an open and inclusive practice that facilitates the application of Systems Thinking and Systems Engineering principles in domains outside of the traditional domains of defence and aerospace. In recent years, the membership of INCOSE UK has widened significantly from its roots, expanding to include domains such as: automotive, rail, energy, civil engineering, space, medicine, and security.
